God's Plan for the Nations

◆ A Fifteen-Week Study ◆

January 19 - April 27, 2010

Tuesdays, 7:00-8:30pm

Course Outline

Pathways to Global Understanding provides a comprehensive overview as well as an in-depth look at the major issues of world missions today. The course is divided into five major areas:

Biblical

Explore the biblical and theological foundation for missions and trace the Great Commission throughout the Bible.

Historical

Examine the progress of missions from Pentecost and the book of Acts through William Carey to the present day.

Strategic

Study the various strategies needed to take the good news of the gospel to the unreached people groups of the world.

Cultural

Learn about the mosaic of cultures around the world and study how to communicate the gospel cross-culturally.

Objectives

Our desire is that every student completing this course will grow as a world Christian and become more deeply committed to the cause of world evangelization. As a result of taking the course, individuals will:

- Know the biblical basis of missions.
- ◆
- Know the key events in biblical history impacting world missions.
- ◆
- Know the main eras and lead characters of mission history.
- ◆
- Understand the key concepts in missions today.
- ◆
- Understand the primary strategies being used by missionaries today to evangelize the world.
- ◆
- Understand the difference between cultures and world views and learn to communicate the gospel cross-culturally.

Cost of the Pathways course is $50 for individuals and $60 for couples who share text materials.
